RBA to offer series of wellness events

According to Rule of Professional Conduct 1.1 comment 7, a lawyer's mental, emotional, and physical well-being impacts the lawyer's ability to represent clients and to make responsible choices in the practice of law. Maintaining the mental, emotional, and physical ability necessary for the representation of a client is an important aspect of maintaining competence to practice law.

Your RBA is here to help.

Over the course of the coming year, the RBA will offer events and experiences to support and promote lawyer wellness in a variety of ways. To kick things off, please join fellow RBA members on Monday, June 14 at 6:30 p.m. for Circuit Bootcamp + Hamstrings Hips and Spines with Humble Haven Yoga in Bryan Park. The event, which is sponsored by Christian & Barton, is free for all RBA members.

Practitioners will first move through circuits to warm up the body and work all muscle groups. Humble Haven's foundation is in yoga so circuit bootcamp will be focused on body weight movements to build strength and endurance. The second half of class will focus on stretching the muscles you just worked by creating space in the hamstrings, hips, and spine. Postures will be held longer to allow the body to slowly open and release, ending in total body zen.

Please wear supportive athletic shoes and a yoga mat is recommended. Since we will be outside, a towel is a great alternative to a mat if there isn't one available

Directions & Parking at Bryan Park:

- Arrive at Bryan Park and follow the main road -- Joseph Bryan Road
- Stay on Joseph Bryan Road to cross over the little bridge and head up the hill
- At the top of the hill, turn left onto Rosina's Lane
- You will pass the tennis court (on your right) & we will meet just beyond them
- For parking: keep driving past the tennis courts; parking will be up ahead on the left
- Take a short walk back toward the tennis courts for yoga!

Stay tuned for information on our other wellness programs tentatively scheduled for August, January and March!

Message from T. O'Connor Johnson, RBA President

As you may know I have been asked to serve a second term as RBA President due to the untimely passing of our friend and colleague John Anderson of Spotts Fain who was to be President this bar year. It is an honor for me to serve another term and I will do so with John's legacy in mind.

The RBA has, so far, weathered the pandemic storm that has affected all of us. Thanks to your continued support we aspire to come out of restrictions as a stronger and more active association. The RBA is poised to "get back to normal" in 2021-22. We anticipate a return to in-person events, including our luncheons, section activities and social events. It is my hope that we can all get together in person at a CLE, section event or social event, spend time with one another and put the troubles of the last year behind us. Your continued participation in and support of RBA programming will help make that happen.

I thank you for your continued support of the RBA and I hope to see you all soon.

The RBA's Young Lawyers Section Annual Meeting was a big hit! With COVID restrictions easing, the YLS opted to host the meeting at Brambly Park in Scotts Addition. With beautiful weather and abundant outdoor space, friends and colleagues relished the opportunity to gather in-person after a long hiatus. The Section is planning to host a multitude of events in the coming months including a trail run, socials and community service projects.

We want to see what the RBA means to you!

Whether you're networking on your own or at an RBA event, share photos and short videos on your personal social media channels. Please tag the Richmond Bar Association in these posts. This will provide us with fresh content as well as help grow the Association's presence in the Richmond community.

COVID-19 didn't stop our resilient Sections from holding their Annual Meetings to elect new officers and transact business. While most were held via Zoom, some incorporated fun events (kudos to the Corporate Counsel Section for hosting a virtual beer tasting!). The Young Lawyers Section (see photos to the left) held an in-person, socially distanced meeting at Brambly Park. Congratulations to all of those elected!
